

CITY OF FALLS CHURCH

Marybeth Connelly Vice Mayor

Vice-Mayor Marybeth Connelly is serving her second term on the Falls Church City Council. She serves as Chair of the Government Operations Committee and the Budget & Finance Committee. She is liaison to the Girls' Home Advisory Board (Aurora House), the Human Services Advisory Council, and FCC-TV. She represents Falls Church on the Northern Virginia Workforce Investment Board, and is the Vice Chair of the Washington Metropolitan Council of Governments Region Forward Coalition.

She moved to Falls Church in 1995, with the expectation that it would be a short-term stay, but the City quickly became home.

Since 2005, Falls Church City Public Schools have employed her as Community Outreach Director. As liaison between the school and business communities, she develops partnerships that are beneficial to the whole community. She is a board member of Greater Falls Church Chamber of Commerce and staff representative on the FCCPS Business in Education Partnership. She is also a member of the Village Preservation & Improvement Society, GMHS Athletic Boosters and PTSA, the League of Women Voters, and Falls Church AAUW.

A native Virginian, she grew up in Pennsylvania. During a year of service at St. Catherine Indian School in Santa Fe, New Mexico, she met her husband, Michael Connelly. They have three children - Brian, Andrew and Julie. She holds a B.A. from Villanova University and M.Ed. from University of Virginia.
