

CITY OF FALLS CHURCH

Letty Hardi Vice Mayor

Letty Hardi is a marketing and financial services professional and community advocate. She is currently a stay-at-home mom to three young boys who attend Falls Church City Public Schools.

Ms. Hardi spent 11 years as a Director of Project Management at Capital One where she led complex, multi-million dollar, cross functional projects and teams. She honed her skills in marketing strategy, process management, product development, mobile technology, financial and P&L management, and people leadership during her time at Capital One. She earned a B.A. in economics and psychology as an Echols Scholar at the University of Virginia in 2001 and also studied health care economics at Oxford University.

Ms. Hardi is a first generation immigrant, born in Hong Kong, and fluent in Cantonese. She grew up first in the San Francisco bay area in California and then Northern Virginia, where her families still live. She was a graduate of Herndon High School in 1997. She is proud to have called the City of Falls Church home since 2003. Her husband, Lucas, was raised in the City and attended all of Falls Church City's schools. In her free time, she enjoys volunteering as a room parent through the PTA in her sons' classrooms, running, baking, and practicing yoga.
